SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall participate in a mental health program, which will include, but will not be limited to, participation in a treatment program for sexual disorders. The program shall be approved by the United States Probation Office.

The defendant's supervised release may include examinations using polygraphs to obtain information necessary for supervision, case monitoring, and treatment. The defendant shall answer the questions posed during the polygraph examination, subject to his or her right to challenge in a court of law the use of such statements as violations of the defendant's Fifth Amendment rights. In this regard, the defendant shall be deemed to have not waived his or her Fifth Amendment rights. The results of any polygraph examinations shall be disclosed to the United States Probation Office and the Court, but shall not be further disclosed without the approval of the Court.

- 2. The defendant shall not have any direct contact with a person under the age of 18 unless it is supervised by a person approved of by the probation officer. The defendant shall not have indirect contact with a person under the age of 18 through another person or through a device (including a telephone, computer, radio, or other means) unless it is supervised by a person approved of by the probation officer. The defendant shall reasonably avoid and remove himself or herself from situations in which the defendant has any other form of contact with a minor.
- 3. The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registry agency in any state where the defendant resides, is employed, carries on a vocation or is a student.
- 4. The defendant shall not use or possess any computer or any other device with online capabilities, at any location, except at his or her place of employment, unless the defendant participates in the Computer Restriction and Monitoring Program. The defendant shall permit the United States Probation Office to conduct periodic, unannounced examinations of any computer equipment the defendant uses or possesses, limited to all hardware and software related to online use (e.g., use of the World Wide Web, e-mail, instant messaging, etc.) and the viewing of pictures or movies that may violate the defendant's conditions of supervised release, except at the defendant's place of employment These examinations may include retrieval and copying of data related to online use, the viewing of pictures and movies, and potential violations of the terms and conditions of supervised release from this computer equipment and any internal or external peripherals. This computer equipment may be removed to the Probation Office for a more thorough examination. The Probation Office may install any hardware or software system that is needed to monitor the defendant's computer use, subject to the limitations described above.
- 5. If the defendant's employment requires the use of a computer, the defendant may use a computer in connection with the employment approved by the probation officer, at the defendant's place of employment, provided the defendant notifies his or her employer of: (1) the nature of his or her conviction; and (2) the fact that the defendant's conviction was facilitated by the use of the computer. The Probation Office must confirm the defendant's compliance with this notification requirement.
- * 6. The defendant shall not be in any area in which persons under the age of 18 are likely to congregate, such as school grounds, child care centers, or playgrounds, without the permission of the probation officer.
- * 7. The defendant shall participate in a program for substance abuse which shall include testing for drug and/or alcohol use and may include inpatient and/or outpatient treatment. The program shall be approved by the United States Probation Office.

DEFENDANT'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF APPLICABLE CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Upon a finding of a violation of probation or supervised release, I understand that the court may (1) revoke supervision, (2) extend the term of supervision, and/or (3) modify the conditions of supervision.

The conditions of supervision have been read to me. I fully understand the conditions and have been provided a copy of them.
